The other verses

2 Till then, by blinded passions led,
In search of fancied good we range;
The paths of disappointment tread,
To nothing fixed, but love of change.

3 But when the Holy Ghost imparts
A knowledge of the Savior's love;
Our wand'ring, weary, restless hearts,
Are fixed at once, no more to move.

4 Now a new principle takes place,
Which guides and animates the will;
This love, another name for grace,
Constrains to good, and bars from ill.

5 By love's sure light we soon perceive
Our noblest bliss, and proper end;
And gladly every idol leave,
To love and serve our Lord and Friend.

6 Thus borne along by faith and hope,
We feel the Savior's words are true;
"And I, if I be lifted up,
Will draw the sinner upward too."
