Who is like that planted tree;

Living waters lave his root,

Bends his bough with golden fruit.

The other verses

2 When the seedling from its bed
First lifts up its timid head,
Ministry of thine must give.
All on which its life can live.

3 Showers from thee must bid it thrive,
Breath of thine must oft revive;
Light from thee its bloom supplies, —
Left by thee it fades and dies.

4 Thine, O Lord! the power and praise
Which a sight like this displays;
Power of thine must plant it there,
Praise of thee it should declare.
