Blind Barti- maeus at the gates Of

| s - - - s - | s - l - s - | m - - - r - | d - - - s - |
Jeri- cho in darkness waits: He

| l - - - l - | l - - t d' - | s - - - s - | m - - - s - |
hears the crowd; he hears a breath say

| l - - - l - | l - - t d' - | s - - - s - | m - r - d - |
"It is Christ of Naza- reth!" And

| m - - r d - | r - - - m - | r - - - d - | r - - - m - |
calls in tones of ago- ny, "O

Jesus, Jesus pity me!"

The other verses

- 2 The thronging multitudes increase
"Blind Bartimaeus, hold thy peace!"
But still, above the noisy crowd,
The blind man's cry is shrill and loud:
Until they say, "He calleth thee;
Courage! arise! He calleth thee!"
- 3 Then saith the Christ, as silent stands
The crowd, "What wilt thou at My hands?"
And he replies, "O give me light!
Rabbi, restore the blind man's sight."
And Jesus answers, "Go thy way,
Thy faith, thy faith hath saved thee."
- 4 Ye that hath eyes and cannot see,
In darkness and in misery,
Recall those mighty voices three—"O Jesus,
Jesus pity me!"
"Courage! arise!
He calleth thee!"
"Thy faith, thy faith hath saved thee."
