The other verses

- | | |
|---|--|
| 2 Golden and glorious,
Strong and victorious
All joy and gladness,
Scattering sadness,
Rises the sun with his lifegiving rays;
Still as the dying,
My members were lying,
but now upspringing,
With joy I am singing,
Gazing around me with wonder and praise. | 4 Let us all singing,
And to God bringing
Our choicest treasure,
To do Him pleasure,
Offer a sacrifice sweeter than lambs.
Heartfelt contrition,
And cheerful submission,
Songs of thanksgiving,
And fruits of good living
Please Him far better than incense of rams. |
| 3 Mine eye surveyeth
What God displayeth
Of His great glory
Spread out before me,
Teaching how great are His wisdom and might;
To His saints showing
The home where they're going,
Peacefully quitting
When God sees it fitting, Earth's closing scenes, as they fade from their sight. | 5 All here is dying,
Groaning and sighing;
God does not alter,
Nor His Word falter;
Built like His will, on immutable ground,
His love remaineth,
His grace never waneth,
Soothing and healing
The pains we are feeling,
Keeping us now and eternally sound. |
