

Gentle Mary Laid Her Child

Doh is A · 4/4    Tune: TEMPUS ADEST FLORIDUM

---

| d - d - d - r - | d - d - s, - - - |
Gentle Mary                      laid her Child

| l, - s, - l, - t, - | d - - - d - - - |
lowly in a                              manger;

| d - d - d - r - | d - d - s, - - - |
There He lay, the                      undefiled,

| l, - s, - l, - t, - | d - - - d - - - |
to the world a                              Stranger:

| s - f - m - r - | m - r - d - - - |
Such a Babe in                              such a place,

| l, - s, - l, - t, - | d - - - d - - - |
can He be the                              Savior?

| s, - s, - l, - t, - | d - d - r - - - |
Ask the saved of                              all the race

| s - f - m - r - | d - - - f - - - |
who have found His                      favor.

| d - - - - - - - |

---

The other verses

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2 Angels sang about His birth;wise men sought and found Him;Heaven's star shone brightly forth,glory all around Him:Shepherds saw the wondrous sight,heard the angels singing;All the plains were lit that night,all the hills were ringing. | 3 Gentle Mary laid her Childlowly in a manger;He is still the undefiled,but no more a stranger:Son of God, of humble birth,beautiful the story;Praise His Name in all the earth,hail the King of glory! |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

---

Melody and words from the Open Hymnal Project (public domain), edited by Brian J. Dumont; tune TEMPUS ADEST FLORIDUM (From Swedish Piae Cantones, 1582); words by Joseph Simpson Cook (1859–1933). Public domain: free to print, copy and sing. Solfa written by NoteFusion's engine from the hymn's notes.