Herald of the Lord's Salvation

Doh is F · 4/4 Tune: RUSTINGTON

| d - - d | f - m - r - - d | t, - s, - d - d - |
Herald of the Lord's sal- vation, Watchful

| l - s - f - - s | m - - - r - s - | in thy station stand; Heed the | fe - m - r - - d | t, - s, - r - d - | heavenly procla- mation, Heed the

| t, - s, - l, - - l, | s, - - - s, - ta, - |
Master's great com- mand. Mark old

| l, - - l, l, - d - | d - t, - t, - r - |
error's gathering forces Compass-

| d - - d d - f - | r - - - r - l - | ing our Zion round; Know in

| s - ta - l - s - | f - m - r - f - | truth thine own re- sources, Give the

| m - r - l, - t, - | d - - - |
trumpet's certain sound!

The other verses

2 Christ proclaim in the new station,
Herald, now assigned to thee;
That the waiting congregation
God's salvation here may see.
Christ proclaim — no line abating
Of the counsel of the Lord;
From no promise deviating;
From no precept; "preach the word."

3 Then, God's blessing resting o'er thee,
And his truth, by night, by day,
Cloud and pillar bright before thee,
Shall make glad thy gospel way;
Till thy work well done, the greeting
Of the Master will be given;
Till we rise to that one meeting —
Pastor — people — all — in heaven!

Tune RUSTINGTON by Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848–1918); words by John Greenleaf Adams (1810–1887). Public domain: free to print, copy and sing. Solfa written by NoteFusion's engine from the hymn's notes.