The other verses

2 Thus Christ, the Friend and Servant
Of man, depressed and poor —
With ready soul and fervent —
With patience to endure —
Lived, labored without measure
In mercy's holy name,
God's will his highest pleasure,
Our good his only fame.

3 And those who in his spirit
Would seek to live and move,
His virtue must inherit,
And labor in his love;
Labor where poor, forsaken,
And lowly, sufferers lie;
In faith and hope unshaken;
Celestial ministry!

4 God of all times and stations!
Teach us this lesson true, —
Proclaim it to all nations
In life and power anew, —
That high above all praises —
All prayers — is that unfeigned,
Glad offering Mercy raises,
By living deeds sustained!
