bove earth's lamen-                                  tation. I

| d - r - m - - - - d - | r - d - ʌ, - - - - ʌ, - |
catch the sweet, though                                  faroff hymn that

| s, - d - m - - - - r - | r - d - - - - _ _ m - |
hails a new cre-                                  ation; Through

| s - - s s - - - - m - | r - m - d - - - - r - |
all the tumult                                  and the strife, I

| m - - m m - - - - r - | m - s - - - - _ _ m - |
hear that music                                  ringing; It

| s - - s s - - - - m - | d - ʌ, - s, - - - - s, - | finds an echo                                  in my soul... How can I keep from                                  singing?

The other verses

2 What though my joys and comforts die?
The Lord my Savior liveth;
What though the darkness gather round?
Songs in the night he giveth;
No storm can shake my inmost calm,
While to that refuge clinging;
Since Christ is Lord of heav'n and earth,
How can I keep from singing?

3 I lift my eyes; the cloud grows thin;
I see the blue above it;
And day by day this pathway smooths,
since first I learned to love it;
The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart,
a fountain ever springing;
All things are mine since I am His...
