How Long, O Lord, His Brother's Blood

Doh is Eb · 4/4 Tune: ST. PETER

| s - | d' - t - l - s - | s - f - m - m - |
How long, O Lord, his brother's blood Shall

| r - d - f - m - | r - - - - - m - |
man in battle spill? How

| f - m - l - s - | s - f - m - d - |
long that mandate be withstood, Which

| m - r - d - t, - | d - - - - - |
cries, "Thou shalt not kill?"

The other verses

2 How long shall glory still be found
In scenes of cruel strife,
Where misery walks, a giant crowned,
Crushing the flowers of life?

3 O, hush, great God! the sounds of war,
And make Thy children feel
That he, with Thee, is noblest far,
Who toils for human weal; —

4 And though forgotten, he alone
Can be a Christian true
Who would his foes as brethren own,
And still their good pursue.
