In vain we thus re- call to mind The cross our Master bore, Unless a holier strength we find, And love his spirit more.

The other verses

2 May we, like him, though thanked with ill;
Insulted, and withstood,
In hope and patience labor still
To do our brethren good.

3 Like him may we, unmurmuring, go
Our heaven-appointed way,
And learn, 'midst gathering storms of woe,
"God's will be done!" to say.
