Je- su, delight of every heart, Thou

| f - m - r - s - | s - fe - s - s - |
font of life, Thou source of light, Earth

| d' - r' - m' - d' - | f' - m' - r' - m' - |
can no joy so real impart, No

| d' - l - s - d' - | d' - t - d' - |
soul can form a hope so bright.

The other verses

2 Abide with us, O Lord, we pray,
And cause Thy heavenly light to glow;
Drive from our minds the clouds away,
And let the world Thy sweetness know.

3 When Thou dost seek the humble heart,
Thy heavenly truth is freely given;
Then vanities of earth depart,
Then glows the fervent love of heaven.

4 O Jesus, of Thy wondrous grace,
Make us Thy boundless love to know;
And when we see Thee face to face,
To us Thy matchless glory show.

5 They know how sweet the Lord can be,
Who deeply drink His love divine;
How blest, who find their all in Thee,
Nor thirst for other joys than Thine.

6 O Thou the spring whence pity flows!
Light from the Fatherland to cheer!
To us Thy glorious light disclose,
Nor let dark clouds afflict us here.
