| s - | d' - s - l - l - | s - f - m - m - |
Let the wild leopards of the wood Put

| f - m - r - s - | s - fe - s - s - |
off the spots that nature gives, Then

| d' - r' - m' - d' - | f' - m' - r' - m' - |
may the wicked turn to God, And

| d' - l - s - d' - | d' - t - d' - |
change their tempers and their lives.

The other verses

2 As well might Ethiopian slaves
Wash out the darkness of their skin;
The dead as well might leave their graves,
As old transgressors cease to sin.

3 Where vice has held its empire long
'Twill not endure the least control;
None but a power divinely strong
Can turn the current of the soul.

4 Great God, I own thy power divine,
That works to change this heart of mine;
I would be form'd anew, and bless
The wonders of creating grace.
