  emulate the              angels' songs; Yea,

  sinners may ad-                dress their King In

The other verses

2 They praise the Lamb who once was slain,
But we can add a higher strain;
Not only say, "He suffered thus,"
But, that he suffered all for us.

3 When angels by transgression fell,
Justice consigned them all to hell;
But mercy formed a wondrous plan,
To save, and honor fallen man.

4 Jesus, who passed the angels by,
Assumed our flesh to bleed and die;
And still he makes it his abode,
As man, he fills the throne of God.

5 Our next of kin, our Brother now,
Is he to whom the angels bow;
They join with us to praise his name,
But we the nearest interest claim.

6 But ah! how faint our praises rise!
Sure, 'tis the wonder of the skies;
That we, who share his richest love,
So cold and unconcerned should prove.

7 O glorious hour it comes with speed
When we from sin and darkness freed,
Shall see the God who died for man,
And praise him more than angels can.
