The other verses

2 O Lord of mercy, by whose grace
The sinner seeks the Father's face,
And finds a welcome there;
When fears the trembling soul distress,
And sins the aching heart oppress,
O Lord of mercy, spare.

3 And say to Him who loves Thee best,
And sent Thee to a world distressed,
His blessing to impart, —
"Hear Thou the sinner's mournful cries,
Accept his preferred sacrifice,
A broken, contrite heart."

4 Blest Spirit, who in holy flame,
At Pentecost all powerful came, —
Our sin-stained souls renew;
And by Thine all-consuming fire,
Consume our sin and vile desire,
And make us pure and true.

5 To God who dwells in highest heaven,
Be endless praise and glory given, —
And praise to Christ the Son.
And to the Holy Spirit blest,
For comfort and for gifts the best, —
Immortal Three in One.
