O Love of God, sur- passing

| d - - - m - - - | s - s - l - t - |
far The loves that human

| d' - - - l - - - | s - - - s - - - |
hearts u- nite, Far

| d' - s - l - s - | f - - - m - - - |
from our ken as yonder

| r - - - r - - - | m - s - s - f - |
star That sheds its radiance

| m - - - r - - - | d - - - |
on the night;

The other verses

2 High as the heavens, and deep as hell,
Broad as the world's infinite need, —
None but the Christ that love can tell,
And none its winning power impede.

3 Glory to God! that love exprest
Came in the gift our need required,
And in the Christ our lives are blest,
And by His love are souls inspired.

4 And from the manger to the cross,
And at the noon-day and the night,
He bore the burden of our loss,
Nor shunned the anguish and despite.

5 And 'twas the love of God He showed,
When, crowned with shame, He meekly died; —
No gifts by bleeding love bestowed,
So great as Jesus crucified.
