O, speak that gracious word a- gain,

And cheer my drooping heart! No voice but thine can soothe my pain, Or bid my fears de- part.

The other verses

2 And canst thou still vouchsafe to own
A wretch so vile as I?
And may I still approach thy throne,
And Abba, Father, cry?

3 Oh then let saints and angels join,
And help me to proclaim,
The grace that healed a breach like mine,
And put my foes to shame!

4 How oft did Satan's cruel boast
My troubled soul affright!
He told me I was surely lost,
And God had left me quite.

5 Guilt made me fear, lest all were true
The lying tempter said!
But now the Lord appears in view,
My enemy is fled.

6 My Savior, by his pow'rful word,
Has turned my night to day;
And his salvation's joys restored,
Which I had sinned away.

7 Dear Lord I wonder and adore,
Thy grace is all divine;
Oh keep me, that I sin no more
Against such love as thine!
