The other verses

2 The mighty whole, each smaller part,
At once before thee lies;
And every thought, of every heart,
Is open to thine eyes.

3 Though greatly from myself concealed,
Thou see'st my inward frame;
To thee I always stand revealed,
Exactly as I am.

4 Since therefore I can hardly bear
What in myself I see;
How vile and black must I appear,
Most holy God, to thee.

5 But since my Savior stands between,
In garments dyed in blood;
'Tis he, instead of me, is seen,
When I approach to God.

6 Thus, though a sinner, I am safe;
He pleads before the throne,
His life and death, in my behalf,
And calls my sins his own.

7 What wondrous love, what mysteries,
In this appointment shine!
My breaches of the Law are his
And his obedience mine.
