The other verses

2 He bows his gracious ear,
We never plead in vain;
Yet we must wait, till he appear,
And pray, and pray again.

3 Though unbelief suggest,
Why should we longer wait?
He bids us never give him rest,
But be importunate.

4 'Twas thus a widow poor,
Without support or friend,
Beset the unjust judge's door,
And gained, at last, her end.

5 For her he little cared,
As little for the laws;
Nor God, nor man, did he regard,
Yet he espoused her cause.

6 She urged him day and night,
Would no denial take;
At length he said, "I'll do her right,
For my own quiet sake."

7 And shall not Jesus hear
His chosen, when they cry?
Yes, though he may awhile forbear,
He'll help them from on high.

8 His nature, truth and love,
Engage him on their side;
When they are grieved, his bowels move,
And can they be denied?

9 Then let us earnest be,
And never faint in prayer;
He loves our importunity,
And makes our cause his care.
