The Christ on Olive's mount in prayer

| s, - s, - s, - | m - - - r - | r - - - - - | f - f - m - |
His heart to God ex- prest; And as they

| r - - - d - | t, - - - l, - | s, - - - - - | s, - l, - d - |
held sweet converse there, His soul with

| m - - - r - | d - - - - - |
peace was blest.

The other verses

2 Far from the din of troubled life,
The tumult, and the swell,
A silence, stilling earthly strife,
Upon His spirit fell.

3 And there a voice whose soothing tone
The trusting spirit filled,
Came with that grace by which alone
Our great unrest is stilled.

4 O may the blessed thought, divine,
That moved the Christ to prayer,
Our weary, anxious souls incline
Like peace and joy to share;

5 And on the mount where God is met,
May we the solace know,
That found His soul on Olivet,
Who shared our life below.
