The other verses

2 And there the Father for His Son
Had decked a glorious throne;
And clouds, His chariots, bore Him up,
That He might claim His own.

3 O strangest wonder e'er beheld,
Since ages hoar began,
The angels saw the highest place
Given to a Son of Man.

4 "O all ye angels praise the Lord,"
The Holy Spirit commands,
"Lift up your gates, ye princes high,
Ye nations, clap your hands."

5 To God the Father throned on high,
And to the Son be praise,
And to the Spirit — Three in One,
From age to age, always.
