

The People That in Darkness Sat

Doh is F · 4/4    Tune: LOBT GOTT, IHR CHRISTEN ALLZUGLEICH

---

| d - | s - s - s - s - | l - s f m - m - |
The       people that in                   darkness sat A

| f - s - l - l - | s - - - - s - |
glorious light have                   seen; The

| s - s - s - m - | s - f m r - s - | light has shined on                   them who long In

| m - d - r - r - | d - - - m - - - | shades of death have                   been. In

| s - d - r - r - | d - - - - - |
shades of death have                   been.

---

The other verses

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2 To hail Thee, Sun of Righteousness,The gath'ring nations come;They joy as when the reapers bearTheir harvest treasures home.Their harvest treasures home. 3 For Thou their burden dost removeAnd break the tyrant's rodAs in the day when Midian fellBefore the sword of God.Before the sword of God. 4 To us a Child of hope is born,To us a Son is giv'n,And on His shoulder ever restsAll pow'r in earth and heav'n.All pow'r in earth and heav'n. | 5 His name shall be the Prince of Peace,The Everlasting Lord,The Wonderful, the Counselor.The God by all adored.The God by all adored. 6 His righteous government and powerShall over all extend;On judgment and on justice based,His reign shall have no end. 7 D Lord Jesus, reign in us, we pray,And make us Thine alone,Who with the Father ever artAnd Holy Spirit, one. |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

---

Melody and words from the Open Hymnal Project (public domain), edited by Brian J. Dumont; tune LOBT GOTT, IHR CHRISTEN ALLZUGLEICH by Nikolaus Hermann (1500–1561); words by John Morison (1746–1798). Public domain: free to print, copy and sing. Solfa written by NoteFusion's engine from the hymn's notes.