trod, Was the first temple,

| d' - - - l - - - | s - - - s - - - |
built by God; His

fiat laid the corner stone, And heaved its pillars,

one by one.

The other verses

2 He hung its starry roof on high, —
The broad, illimitable sky;
He spread its pavement, green and bright
And curtained it with morning light.

3 The mountains in their places stood, —
The sea, the sky, — and "all was good;"
And when its first pure praises rang,
The "morning stars together sang."

4 Lord! 'tis not ours to make the sea,
And earth and sky a house for thee;
But in thy sight our offering stands,
A humbler temple, "made with hands."
