rich me daily, more and more.

The other verses

2 I have no food my soul to feed,
Be Thou my Bread of Life indeed;
My parchèd spirit sighs, O give
The stream of Life that I may live.

3 My filthy raiment I disown,
Clothe with Thy righteousness alone,
And I shall walk approved by Thee,
Clad in Thy robe of purity.

4 I have no strength; in evil hour
I fall beneath temptation's power;
Be Thou my strength, and I shall stand
Upheld by Thine outstretched hand.

5 I cannot see the path to tread,
And blindly by my sins am led;
Come to my blindness, give me sight
That I may shape my course aright.

6 I cannot live if Thou deny
The prayer uplifted with my cry;
I cannot die, — in mercy give
Thy grace, that I may die or live.

7 Think on me, Lord, for Thou art kind,
And I am needy, poor, and blind;
And let the gifts Thou hast in store,
Enrich me daily, more and more.
