The other verses

2 'Twas love that brought Thee to our aid,
To bear the burden of our woe,
To bow the head in shameful death,
And life, immortal life, bestow.

3 Asunder burst the bands of hell,
The captives hailed the glorious day;
And by Thy mighty triumph crowned,
Thou art at God's right hand for aye.

4 O may Thy mercy still abound,
That, by the goodness of Thy grace,
We daily o'er our sin may rise,
And see the beauty of Thy face.

5 Spring of our joy, be Thou, O Christ;
Our great reward, hereafter be;
And while the endless ages run,
Our praises shall be all of Thee.
