let thy pow'r be known; That every sinner here, may feel The word is not his own.

The other verses

2 Amongst the foremost of the throng
Who dare thee to thy face,
He in rebellion stood too long,
And fought against thy grace.

3 But grace prevailed, he mercy found,
And now by thee is sent,
To tell his fellow-rebels round,
And call them to repent.

4 In Jesus, God is reconciled,
The worst may be forgiv'n;
Come, and he'll own you as a child,
And make you heirs of heav'n.

5 O, may the word of gospel truth
Your chief desires engage
And Jesus be your guide in youth,
Your joy in hoary age.

6 Perhaps the year, that's now begun,
May prove to some their last;
The sands of life may soon be run,
The day of grace be past.

7 Think, if you slight this embassy,
And will not warning take;
When Jesus in the clouds you see,
What answer will you make?
