By an igno-	minious death

He a full a-	tonement made;

And by His most	precious blood,
d - r - m - r -	d - t, - d - - -
Brought us, sinners,	nigh to God.

| 2 That we never should forget
This great Love on us bestowed,
He gave us His flesh to eat,
and to drink His precious blood;
All who sick and needy are
May receive in Him a share. 3 Hither each afflicted soul
May repair, though filled with grief;
To the sick, not to the whole,
the Physician brings relief;
Fear not, therefore, but draw nigh,
Christ will all your wants supply. | 4 He who in self—righteousness
Fixes any hope or stay,
Has not on a wedding dress,
And with shame is sent away;
To the hungry, weary heart,
He will food and rest impart. 5 But examine first your case,
Whether you be in the faith;
Do you long for pard'ning grace?
Is your only hope His death?
Then, howe'er your soul's oppressed,
Come, you are a worthy guest. 6 He who Jesus' mercy knows, Is from wrath and envy freed;
Love unto our neighbor shows That we are His flock indeed;
Thus we may in all our ways Show forth our
Redeemer's praise. |
