in that hour.

The other verses

2 And clouds obscured the heavenly light,
And e'en the stars were dim;
For O 'twas night, and only night,
Dark night 'twixt God and him.

3 "O whence that flashing sword that gleams?
And whence those angels there?"
Out from the garden of their bliss,
Was thrust the guilty pair.

4 Life is not theirs, the tree of Life
The Cherubim surround;
Death dogs our guilty parents' steps,
Curse blasts the fertile ground.

5 O dreary, dreary, dark and dread,
O misery of sin!
"God make another garden fair,
And take Thy wanderers in."

6 All praise to Christ our glorious Lord,
For sin and death are slain;
The gates of heaven are open wide,
And life is ours again.
