there.

The other verses

2 Did'st Thou not send the Son,
To shew the Father's grace,
To bid a world undone
Arise and seek His face?
And wilt Thou not in mercy say,
"Thy many sins I take away"?

3 Yea, Thou wilt not despise
The soul's uplifted prayer;
Nor when our hopes arise,
Plunge us in deep despair;
But wilt forgive the evil done,
Through Christ the Well Beloved Son.

4 O Jesus Christ, by Thee
The Father's grace is found,
And pardon full, and we
With every good abound, —
We see Thee nailed upon the tree,
And know all blessing comes from Thee.
