When darkness falls and night is here, My hymns of praise in silence rise This knows the moon, whose silver sphere Shines in the star be-spangled skies.

The other verses

2 When morning breaks, and glorious day Shines in the dawn and noontide fair —
This knows the sun — a grateful lay Springs from my heart in fervent prayer.

3 When fails the light at sunset gray,
And twilight listens for my song —
This know the stars — in bright array
My praises mingle with their throng.
